

and inserts in its place another apparently of his own invention in a most disconcerting manner. The leaflet which you enclose is the same that was printed at the end of the "Outline", as you will no doubt remember. The paragraphs were written by Mrs. Besant.

Fullerton did write to me giving the disastrous result of the deliberations of his representative committee as to Raja's visit, but he did not explain in the least any of their reasons. Those reasons, however, are in reality of no importance. The fact remains that their foolishness has ~~imf~~ lost them an exceedingly fine opportunity.

All here continues to go well and we had a larger attendance at the public meeting last night than any heretofore. MR. Prime is at the moment away lecturing at Sacramento. I myself paid a visit to Oakland last Friday and am going to Santa Rosa at the end of this week for three days, but of course returning for the Sunday, as I used to do at Chicago.

I have more to say, but an engagement intervenes, and I must continue by a later post. With much love to Robert and dear Don, of whose progress I shall be always glad to have news,

I am ever

Yours most cordially
